Non-Discrimination Policy

The Labor 411 Foundation is an equal opportunity employer. We are committed to providing an inclusive and welcoming environment for all members of our staff, volunteers, and vendors. Labor 411 does not and shall not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, gender identity, age, ethnicity, disability, marital status, sexual orientation, or military status, in any of its activities or operations. These activities include, but are not limited to, hiring and firing of staff, selection of volunteers and vendors, and provision of services.

Furthermore, we will take affirmative action measures to ensure against discrimination in employment, recruitment, advertisements for employment, compensation, termination, and other conditions of employment against any employee or job applicant based on race, color, gender, ethnicity, age, religion, disability, veteran's status, sexual orientation, or gender identity.
